Privacy Statement

Commitment to privacy

Privacy is very important to Bengali Society of Queensland (BSQ). We are required to comply with the Federal Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles. Therefore, our privacy policy applies to any personal information we collect, use, or disclose, including the personal information of our members and stakeholders.

How and why we collect personal information

We collect personal information to provide various services to our members and stakeholders. With consent, we may also use personal information for related purposes, including but not limited to, providing members and stakeholders with updates on our events, operations, and community services.

How we use and disclose personal information

We do not use or disclose personal information for any purpose that is unrelated to the operations of BSQ and that you would not reasonably expect (without your consent). We have a duty to maintain the confidentiality of our members and stakeholders' affairs, including personal information. Our duty of confidentiality to our members and stakeholders applies, except where disclosure of personal information is consented by the member or stakeholder or is compelled by law.

Member and stakeholder personal information may be disclosed to approved third parties who are also required to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles.

Security of your personal information

We endeavour to protect any personal information we hold from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification, and/or disclosure.

Contact us

If you want to (i) gain access to your personal information, (ii) correct or update your personal details, (iii) register a complaint about a breach of your privacy, or if you have any other query relating to our privacy policy, please contact us.

I, _____, have read, understand, and agree to be bound by the above Privacy Statement. I acknowledge that this is binding even if I am no longer a member or a stakeholder of BSQ.

I approve including my/family details (Full name, address, email ID, and contact number) in the BSQ Annual Magazine to be circulated among BSQ members only.
